

MULTISENSE AND MIRCOD PRIVACY STATEMENT

MultiSense is committed to providing meaningful privacy protection of visitors to our online sites. Accordingly, we have adopted this Privacy Statement to serve as the foundation for our privacy practices and procedures. When we refer to "MultiSense" in this Privacy Statement, we are referring to MultiSense Technology developed by Mircod, LLC, a Cyprus corporation and its worldwide subsidiaries.

The MultiSense web site is structured so that you can visit without identifying yourself or revealing personal information. You can visit our site and find out about our products and services, read our corporate reports, check on career opportunities, or get news updates and other value-added services.

In some circumstances, MultiSense may request personal information such as your name, e-mail address, company name or telephone number. Your response to these inquiries is strictly voluntary. MultiSense and our service providers, acting only on behalf of and on instructions from MultiSense for the processing of your personal information, may use this information for statistical, demographic, marketing and/or transaction purposes, and to better understand the make-up of our customer base so we can improve our services consistent with our visitors' interests. Once you choose to provide us personally identifiable information (any information which can identify you), be assured that it will only be used to support your relationship with MultiSense. If you do provide personal information, we will not disclose (share, sell or divulge) it to any third party (other than service providers who act only on our behalf and on our instructions) in other than aggregated statistical form.

MultiSense maintains physical, technical and organizational safeguards to protect the confidentiality of personal information about our customers against (i) unauthorized access or disclosure, and (ii) accidental loss, alteration or destruction. Outside vendors do not have access to our systems and information unless they comply with our rules and adhere strictly to our security standards. The personal information collected through our website is transferred to our Russian subsidiary located in Kazan, Tatarstan, and may be further transferred to our service providers in the Russia.

You may at any time access your own account to: (i) view and correct your personal information; (ii) modify your preferences. You can also, at any time, ask MultiSense to no longer send you marketing information or close/delete your account, by sending an e-mail to info@mircod.com. By closing/deleting your account, your personal information will be removed.

The MultiSense web site may store some information (called a "cookie") on your computer's hard drive to automatically recognize you the next time you visit. A cookie file can contain information such as a user ID that the site uses to track the pages you've visited, but the only personal information a cookie can contain is information you supply yourself. A cookie can't read data off your hard disk or read cookie files created by other sites. Some parts of MultiSense.com use cookies so customers can receive the pages in a preferred language. We do this in order to determine the usefulness of MultiSense.com information to our users and to see how effective our navigational structure is in helping users reach that information.

If you prefer not to receive cookies on MultiSense.com, you can set your browser to warn you before accepting cookies and refuse the cookie when your browser alerts you to its presence. You can also refuse all cookies by turning them off in your browser. A decision not to accept cookies could limit your access to some of the functionality and services that are available on the MultiSence.com web site.

As a convenience to our visitors, MultiSence's web site may contain links to a number of sites not authored and/or owned by MultiSence that we believe may offer useful information. The privacy policies and procedures described here do not apply to those sites. We suggest contacting these sites directly for information on their data collection and distribution policies.

Any changes in the MultiSence.com Privacy Statement will be communicated on this page.

By providing your personal information to MultiSence, you unambiguously give your consent to the processing of your personal information as described in this Privacy Statement.
